JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: SIXTY (60) MONTHS

This term consists of 60 months on each of Counts 1 through 5 of the Information, to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 1 through 5 of the Information, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes owed for the years of conviction; and shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes during the period of community supervision. Further, the defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order;
4. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon on August 14, 2009. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at:

Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $500, which is due immediately.

USA vs. Norma AbapoDocket No.: CR06-381-SVW

Pursuant to Section 5E1.2(e) of the Guidelines, all fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $3,023,788 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $3,023,788.00 to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least $500 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

Defendant is informed of her right to appeal.

Bond is exonerated upon self-surrender.

The Court notes that this is a particularly horrendous crime. The defendant has repeatedly, willfully, and brazenly exhibited no respect for the laws of this country by defrauding programs designed to help those in need. The Court recognizes that the defendant is in her sixties and further notes that the sentence is relatively mild given the nature of the offense. However, the sentence is sufficiently significant to protect the public from further crimes of the defendant and to afford adequate deterrence.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
